

PAM RANKIN

In 2000, Pam began her therapeutic riding career as a volunteer through Equi-librium (a NARHA Premier-Accredited Center in Sciota, PA) under the tutelage of Michell Ressler, Pat Sayler, and the late Barbar Glasso. In 2005, she successfully completed the requirements to become a NARHA Registered Instructor, and was a volunteer instructor at Equi-librium until April 2009.

She has worked with riders with a variety of special abilities, including ADD, ADHD, CP, Autism, sight impaired, developmental delays, and emotional/psychological needs. Her teaching experience has included both group and individual lessons. She has a passion for seeing the positive in every rider and strives to see past what the world deems a "disability" to find the special "ability" that can be brought out with the help of our special equine partners.

During the summer, she is a riding instructor, and cares for six horses at Camp Conquest in Denver, PA. Here, she teaches group lessons for riders of all ages, which has helped her broaden her teaching skills and equine knowledge. Pam is employed by the Lancaster/Lebanon IU13 as a paraprofessional.

Pam first met Laura Rutledge while going through the NARHA certification process. When she moved back to the Lancaster County area in 2009, she had the opportunity to join the team of instructors and is excited and honored to be a part of Triangle Therapeutic Riding Center.
