

SARAH VANDYKE

Sarah joined Triangle Therapeutic Riding in the summer of 2009. She studied nonprofit management in college, and is currently training to become a NARHA Registered Instructor. She loves working with both the horses and special students, and is thrilled to be part of the TTR team.

Sarah has been riding for over 15 years. She competed in pleasure and hunter shows throughout high school, and has ridden with the equestrian programs at Linden Hall School for Girls and Hollins University. Trainers have included Joan Palmer, Scott Burkhart, Barry Needle, Nancy Peterson, and Liz Courter.
